1. THE STATE OF TEXAS, COUNTY OF DALLAS, ss. I, _____, Clerk of the County Court, do hereby certify that the within and foregoing is a true and correct copy of the original of the same as the same appears from the records of the County Court of the County of Dallas, State of Texas.

Abstract The purpose of this study was to determine the effect of a 12-week, low-intensity, supervised exercise program on the physical and psychological health of sedentary, middle-aged, obese women. The study was a randomized, controlled trial. The subjects were randomly assigned to either an exercise group or a control group. The exercise group performed a 12-week, low-intensity, supervised exercise program. The control group did not exercise. The subjects were assessed at baseline and at 12 weeks. The exercise group showed significant improvements in physical and psychological health compared to the control group. The exercise group had significantly lower body mass index (BMI), waist circumference, and body fat percentage at 12 weeks compared to baseline. The exercise group also had significantly lower levels of anxiety and depression at 12 weeks compared to baseline. The control group showed no significant changes in physical or psychological health. The results of this study suggest that a 12-week, low-intensity, supervised exercise program can improve the physical and psychological health of sedentary, middle-aged, obese women.

What happened to the killer who kept The City in terror?

By Tim Reiterman

On the night of Oct. 11, 1969, Homicide Detective Dave Toschi was on call at home. At 10:25, the phone rang. Police operations told him a Yellow Cab driver had been shot to death near Presidio Heights.

Within minutes, police radios were describing the assailant as a black man and squad cars were converging on the area, red lights flashing. One car passed a husky white man walking into the Presidio, a few blocks from the murder scene at Washington and Cherry streets.

A short time later, understandably rattled witnesses were able to give a coherent description of the man who pumped a single bullet into the head of cab driver Paul Stine, then mopped blood from the car seat with a piece of the driver's blue and white sport shirt and coolly got out and walked around to the left rear door, apparently to wipe away fingerprints.

The description was similar to that of the man seen by officers in the squad car — a white male, 25 to 30, 5-foot-10, 180 to 200 pounds, barrel-chested, with light-colored hair, a crewcut, glasses and a blue, waist-length zippered jacket. Dozens of police searched the area, including the Julius Kahn Playground at the edge of the Presidio.

It appeared to be a routine, yet nonetheless tragic, murder-robbery that netted the thief $10 or $11, the sort that happens every day in a piece of bloodstained blue and white cloth.

"This is the Zodiac speaking. I am the murderer of the taxi driver ... last night, to prove this here is a bloodstained piece of his shirt."

"I am the same man who did in the people in the North Bay Area. The SF police could have caught me if they had searched the park properly instead of holding road races with their motorcycle club seeing who could make the most noise. The car drivers should have just parked their cars and sat there quietly waiting for me to come out of cover."

That night was Detective Toschi's first night on the trail of Zodiac, and his closest brush with the killer. Eight years later, he still is waiting for Zodiac to come out of cover.

It's a lonely wait, and each date of a Zodiac killing or communication rubs his frustration. Today is the fourth anniversary of Zodiac's last direct communication, a letter Toschi carries at all times to remind himself that he has failed to catch one of the most notorious and mysterious criminals in history.

"I think he is alive," the detective said in an interview. "It's almost a gut feeling. But, if he had been killed in an accident or committed suicide or been murdered, I believe someone would have gone into his room. And I think he could leave something for us to find."

It would seem uncharacteristic for an egotistical killer who taunted police with ghoulish and sometimes coded accounts of his deeds to depart this earth without a parting shot. And Zodiac has yet to explain most of the 37 murders he claims.

"We're certain he killed at least six and wounded two in the late 1960s," Toschi said. "There are many unsolved homicides, but there is no reason to attribute any to Zodiac."

The days are gone when two dozen law enforcement officers parlayed over the Zodiac menace, when newspapers implored the killer to surrender, when men matching Zodiac's description were stopped and questioned.

Now Toschi works the case alone, as he has for two years.

In eight filing cabinet drawers, he has carried on his paper chase of a nameless man who took pleasure in killing strangers on weekends for no rational reason.

He has run down and filed away 3,000 leads, many provided by fellow officers and phone calls and letters from private citizens. He has alphabetized 2,000 possible suspects, and has taken a close look at a half dozen "good suspects," none with fingerprints matching those found at Zodiac murder scenes.

As the result of wire service stories, tips have come in from all over the world, including Canada, Europe, New Zealand and Australia. The cranks have to be weeded out from persons who believe they know Zodiac and it's a time-consuming task.

He has had to contend with a self-appointed helper who called himself "The Valiant Crusader," an alcoholic named "Old Tom" who claimed to be Zodiac and jilted women who tried to finger their former spouses or boyfriends out of revenge.

Tips continue to pour in at a rate of roughly one every three days, and Toschi runs down each until satisfied that it will not lead to the long-silent killer.

"I have no idea what Zodiac looks like now," he said. "That's the problem."

Eyewitness descriptions of Zodiac can be considered shaky at best, especially since eight years have passed since the last known sighting. The witnesses at the slaying of cab driver Stine were frightened. The police officers who saw Zodiac got only a fleeting view. And the only time Zodiac killed during daylight hours — the Sept. 27, 1969, stabbing death of a 22-year-old woman and the wounding of her male companion at Lake Berryessa Park — he wore a hood.

Police believe that Zodiac has an eye problem because he wore glasses even under his hood. There are also indications that he had some connection to the military.

He wore a military-type crew cut or short hair. His pants had pleats at a time when that cut was not fashionable. He committed several of his murders in the Vallejo area near Mare Island and one near the Presidio. And his messages showed some knowledge of cryptography.

Toschi said he leans toward the theory that Zodiac may have been connected with the Navy at one time. In addition to the fact that he wore a Navy-type windbreaker, jacket for the Sins killing, the detective notes "Three codes were used in his messages, and some had nautical signs. One sign is used by weathermen and Navy people."

In consultation with psychologists, Toschi also has come to the conclusion that Zodiac is a high school graduate with a giant ego locked in an inconspicuous identity. "I feel he probably has a mental job and is very lonely, not around many loved ones."

Although a handwriting expert once concluded Zodiac was impatient and afraid of women, the investigator says the facts only show that he apparently enjoyed killing defenseless people. "There was no sexual activity," he said. "No molestation, no mutilation."

The key to solving the case,

Toschi said, lies in Zodiac's ego and his somewhat distinctive lettering style, not in his coded messages, one of which remains unbroken.

Zodiac seemed obsessed with publicizing his exploits. At first he communicated with smaller newspapers such as the Vallejo Times-Herald. Then he sent letters to the two large daily newspapers in San Francisco, and later sent one letter to the Los Angeles Times, the largest West Coast daily, complaining that the San Francisco papers relegate his messages to back pages.

As a result, however, his lettering has been seen by people all over California. "I hope he'll communicate with a friend or family member and slip," Toschi said. "I hope something rings a bell in someone's head and they'll pass on a letter to police."

"I'm counting on a slip of mind where he feels after nine or 10 years that he's safe and he'll write a boastful letter to a friend. Medical people and psychologists say it will come out."

Toschi believes that Zodiac has not killed since 1969, although the mystery man increased his total to 37 on Jan. 30, 1973, after nearly a three-year silence. At that time, Zodiac's ego was apparent as he panned "The Exorcist" as "bad comedy," although it caused many people to vomit.

Later in 1974, he sent two messages to the Chronicle, without disclosing his identity. One urged the newspaper to "show some concern for public sensibilities" by dropping an ad for a movie called "Badlands." The letter, signed "A Citizen," went on to say: "This kind of murder glorification can only be deplorable at best." In a postcard signed "The Red Phantom (red with rage)," Zodiac criticized columnist Count Marco for his "superior attitude" and demanded cancellation of the column.

"He got his pleasure by telling us about the murders," Toschi said. "My guess is that he hasn't been killing. Ego is what forced him to kill and write letters, knowing the media would broadcast and print it."

If that's so, then why hasn't Zodiac killed in recent years and why has he been silent so long?

One theory is that he has been in and out of prisons, jails or mental institutions.

"I think he is in a period of remission and that some symptoms abated," Toschi said. "Perhaps during this period, he had no desire to kill."

There was a previous, though shorter, period of inactivity discovered during investigation of five Zodiac slayings from Dec. 29, 1968, to Oct. 11, 1969. Police determined that Zodiac was behind the Oct. 30, 1968, slaying of Riverside City College cheerleader Cheri Jo Bates, whose throat was slashed by a man who first sabotaged her car in the college parking lot.

A janitor inadvertently found a poem scratched in a library study desk and later proved to be written by Zodiac.

"Sick of living unwilling to die. Cut, clean. If red! clean, blood spurt, dripping, spilling; all over her new dress. "Oh well, it was red anyway. Life draining into an uncertain death. She won't die this time. Someone'll find her. Just wait till next time." It was signed, "Z."

There was no mention of the name Zodiac in either the poem or confession letters sent to police, a local newspaper and the dead girls' father. Zodiac apparently tried to hide his connection to the Bates murder (or some reason — possibly because the initials "Z" might be a clue to his identity, possibly because he was a fellow student or one of her teachers, possibly because he was a military man stationed in the area, and possibly because he was a traveling businessman from the Bay Area.

Whatever the Riverside connection, Zodiac turned up in the San Francisco Bay Area and convinced police by providing details known only to the killer that he was responsible for the following homicides:

- Dec. 20, 1968, a man used a pencil flashlight taped to the barrel of a .22-caliber pistol to find and kill David Faraday and Betty Lou Jensen on a lover's lane near Vallejo.

- July 5, 1969, a man fired a .38mm pistol into a car parked less than two miles from the site of Faraday-Jensen murders, killing Darleen Ferris, 22, and wounding Michael Mageau, 19.

- Sept. 27, 1969, a black-hooded man tied up and stabbed Bryan Hartnell, 20, 10 times, and then stabbed Hartnell's companion, Cecelia Ann Shepard, 23, 24 times at Lake Berryessa Park. The woman died, but Hartnell recovered.

- Oct. 11, 1969, a man shot and killed cab driver Paul Stine in San Francisco with a .38mm pistol.

Zodiac frequently used a .38mm pistol, yet he was clever enough never to use the same gun twice. He killed between 10 p.m. and midnight when darkness obscured his face, and he used a hood for his one daylight murder.

Although he took care to wipe his fingerprints and boasted that he took other precautions, Zodiac made mistakes. Toschi said police have enough fingerprints — from the Stine murder scene and from a Napa County telephone booth where Zodiac once called police — to make a positive identification if he is captured or surrenders.

The Stine murder was a break with Zodiac's pattern of killing women and couples. And perhaps the best explanation was Zodiac's message a month later:

"I shall no longer announce to any when I commit my murders. They shall look like routine robberies, killings of anger, & a few fake accidents, etc."

Whether or not Zodiac is carrying out his morbid promise, Toschi is waiting and working for the day when he meets the killer face to face to inform him of his legal rights. "Hopefully, that day may come," the detective said.

Expert frustrated; handwriting's not on wall for Zodiac

In his 37 years as a handwriting expert, no case has frustrated Sherwood Morrill as much as the Zodiac killer whose bizarre and boastful letters are believed to be the key to his identity.

"I'd like to find him before I die," the 63-year-old Morrill said. "If he dies, I wish he'd leave a note saying who he was."

Since Zodiac's calculated carnage in the late 1960s, Morrill has analyzed more than 9,000 writing samples for law enforcement officials on Zodiac's trail.

He knows Zodiac's distinctive printing better than anyone on earth, even well enough to spot it on a bank deposit slip.

And he believes, as does San Francisco Homicide Detective Dave Toschi, that Zodiac's printing may give him away because he may well use it every day.

"I'm sure this is his natural handwriting, and he was used to using it a lot," Morrill said in an interview. "It is so consistent, I don't think he uses script."

The handwriting samples poured in during the peak of Zodiac's activities. But now — though Morrill went into business for himself in December 1973 after 39 years with the state Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation — the samples dribble in at a rate of about one a month.

In the last four years, there have been no known written communiqués from Zodiac, yet the mass murderer's lettering is fresh in Morrill's mind.

"His printing is distinctive," he said. "He is an intelligent guy and we know he deliberately misspells some words because he sometimes spells them correctly."

"His punctuation and paragraphing are perfect. His tenses and syntax are perfect. His vocabulary is good."

The letter K is particularly outstanding. It's made in three distinct strokes rather than the usual two.

Still, Zodiac was careful when he wrote the bloody details of his killings. Unintended to attack a school bus and diagramed a bomb that experts say would have detonated.

Using a ball point pen he wrote on various types of paper, but it generally was cheap, dime-store paper without water marks that could be traced to a manufacturer. And he never left any fingerprints on the paper or envelopes.

His one departure from this format was after the 1966 murder of a Riverside coed — a murder authorities believe Zodiac sought

SHERWOOD MORRILL LABORED OVER ZODIAC CASE

"I'd like to find him before I die," the handwriting expert said to conceal for some reason. Though letters then were not signed "Zodiac," Morrill determined that typewritten letters on teletype paper were from the killer.

Investigators were unable to trace the paper to any military installations that use teletypes, yet there were some indications the killer was associated with the military.

Footprints at two of the murder scenes appeared to have been made by military-type shoes, and some witnesses said the killer wore pleated military-type pants or a military-type windbreaker jacket.

The campus killing and the possible military connection sent Morrill on the arduous task of checking handwriting samples of thousands of college students in the Riverside area and of men stationed near Riverside in the Vallejo area, where 36 killings occurred.

"The one big fault in thorough applications for so is that some are typed and had a signature," Morrill complained. "Script writing printing are different."

Morrill — who has handwriting identification involving black activist As Davis, mass killer Juan Ce and the late billionaire Ho Hughes — said he would not trouble positively identifying Zodiac in court if it came to the "Handwriting is as distinctive as fingerprints," he said. "And handwriting identification is admissible in court."

Sir:

1. Request an analysis of the enclosed "Zodiac" homicide letters to determine the number of authors. No identified suspect at this time.
2. These letters have been examined by Mr. Sherwood Merrill, California Department of Justice, Bureau of Criminal Identification (Questioned Documents Section) and Mr. John Shimoda, Director of Postal Crime Laboratory, Western Regional Office, San Bruno, California. Prior to his retirement in 1973 Mr. Merrill examined and authenticated all of the "Zodiac" letters, including the now disputed Riverside, California letters. On May 11, 1978 Mr. Shimoda examined, for the first time, these Riverside, California letters and formed the opinion that they were not authored by "Zodiac". We are requesting this additional examination to settle the disputed authorship due to the seriousness of the case. "Zodiac" is a mass murderer to whom we have attributed six known victims since 1966, and has subsequently reappeared by sending another letter to a local newspaper.
3. At Mr. [REDACTED] request I contacted Mr. Michael Bertocchi, California State Department of Justice, Bureau of Criminal Investigation (Questioned Document Section) and Mr. John Shimoda, Director of Postal Crime Laboratory, Western Regional Office, and explained the nature of this requested examination. Neither individual expressed any reason why the examination should not be conducted.

These mail folios containing items for the following follow:

One page letter and envelope for the following:

- Q97 One page letter and envelope postmarked 8 July 1974 (Your Item #13)

Q100 Photographs of three letters and envelopes postmarked 28 April 1967 and photograph of message written on wood dash top with ball point pen (Your Item #16)

Specimen received May 11, 1974, from FBI, San Francisco, under cover of communication dated May 11, 1974 (0019014 C 11)

Photograph of Q97

Result of examination:

The hand printing on the Q97 through Q99 letters shows a wide range of variation and various styles. Additionally, portions of the letters on the three Riverside letters, may have been written or otherwise distorted.

For the above reasons, the hand printing examination of these letters was inconclusive. However, certain hand printing characteristics were noted in the Q97 through Q100 letters which indicate that one person had written all of the letters including the Riverside letters and the message found on the dash top in the Riverside car.

The submitted evidence was photographed and is enclosed herewith.

OO: SacramentoRe Bureau letter to Chief of Police, San Francisco, dated 6/7/78.

Enclosed for the Bureau, for the information of the FBI Laboratory, is a Xerox copy of recent article in the San Francisco Examiner wherein some doubt is cast on the authenticity of the last letter dated 4/24/78, purportedly mailed by the ZODIAC, and even suggesting that it may have been Inspector GAVE TOSCHI, San Francisco Police Department, who prepared the last ZODIAC letter.

Inasmuch as the Bureau has examined the letter, this allegation raised about the authenticity of the latest letter is being brought to the attention of the FBI Laboratory, in order that the Laboratory can be prepared to respond to any inquiry received by the FBI Laboratory from the news media. The FBI Laboratory may desire to re-examine the last submitted letter.

New puzzles further muddle Zodiac case

Well-known cop removed; last letter a hoax?

Veteran homicide cop David Toschi was transferred to the pawnshop detail today following his admission he wrote phony letters praising himself to a newspaper columnist and suggestions he might have been the author of the latest communication from the Zodiac killer.

Toschi, 47, labeled as "totally absurd" the suggestion that he wrote the April 24 Zodiac letter, the authenticity of which has been challenged by at least one handwriting expert.

"I wrote no Zodiac letter," Toschi said this morning. "I don't need another letter. It only brings me tons of extra work."

A high police department official also said there was no evidence Toschi had written the Zodiac letter.

He admitted writing what he called fan letters about himself to former Chronicle socialist Armistead Maupia, now a freelancer, who used Toschi as a hero in his fictional "Tales of the City" serial.

The "two or three" letters were written two years ago, he said, and he considered them harmless at the time.

"It was a very foolish thing to do," he said. "I am ashamed of it."

The department's internal affairs division has investigated the matter but Capt. John Mahoney, head of the division, declined comment.

Gain also declined comment today, as did officers in the intelligence division, which also was involved in the investigation. Lt. Jack Jordan, Toschi's former homicide boss, was not available for comment.

Toschi has been on the force for 23 years, the last 18 on the homicide detail. He had been assigned to the Zodiac case for the past nine years.

The announcement of his transfer was made shortly before 5 p.m. after a conference between Police Chief Charles Gain and Deputy Chief Clement DeAmicis.

The reason, Gain said, was that a departmental investigation had disclosed that Toschi, using fictitious names, had written several complimentary letters about himself and mailed them to a San Francisco writer.

The police statement did not name the writer, but he was identified through other sources as Maupin.

Gain also announced that there now is some doubt about the authenticity of the April 24 letter and that experts have disagreed on whether or not it is the real thing.

"The continuing investigation

of the Zodiac case by our Zodiac investigation team, established in April 1975, has led to the conclusion that there is reason to doubt whether Zodiac in fact wrote the April 24 letter," Gain said.

The team was composed of Toschi and Inspectors James Tedesco and James Deasy.

"It was given the mission to go over every bit of the Zodiac case — to examine, collate and codify, and to re-examine what had been examined before," DeAmicis said.

DeAmicis was asked if anyone had raised the possibility that the April 24 letter might have been Toschi's handiwork.

"There is absolutely nothing demonstrable that Inspector Toschi wrote any of the Zodiac letters," DeAmicis replied.

Gain said in announcing Toschi's reassignment that "I conclude that reassigning Inspector Toschi would be beneficial both to the inspector and to the San Francisco Police Department."

Regarding the letter, the chief said that "there is a conflict in the opinion of some of the questioned-document experts who examined the April letter and compared it with previous Zodiac letters. This letter will be the subject of further examination by experts."

Robert Prouty, chief of the questioned-documents section of the State Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation, said he didn't think the April letter was genuine Zodiac.

"I examined photographs of the April letter and those of previous letters attributed to Zodiac and in my opinion the April letter was not written by the same person," Prouty said.

"Several letter characteristics in my opinion did not match the style used by Zodiac. The slant of some letters was not consistent with previous Zodiac communications."

"My first impression was that it was in the same general style as previous letters, but after closer examination my ultimate conclusion was that there were so many differences that it was not written by the same person who wrote the previous Zodiac letters."

Sherwood Merrill, who formerly held the post now filled by Prouty and who is now retired and in private practice, disagreed sharply with Prouty.

"The last letter was by the real Zodiac," Merrill declared. "There is no question in my mind. I've heard they're accusing Toschi of writing them. If Toschi wrote the last one, he's the Zodiac. He wrote them all."

"My suspicion is that somebody is after Toschi, because I worked with Toschi and Armstrong Inspector Bill Armstrong, who also has worked on the Zodiac cases and they were always as honest with me as they could be."

Merrill said of Toschi's transfer: "It shocked me, and I'm not easily shocked after all these years."

"This last letter that turned up is definitely by the Zodiac we knew in the past," Morrill said. "I examined it. The characters and handwriting are just dead-bang the same."

Morrill said that he, John Shumoda, head of the Postal Service crime laboratory in San Bruno, and Pleasant Hill handwriting expert David DeGarmo "all agreed this last letter was real."

Morrill added, "I think Toschi's had too much publicity and some people may not like it."

He also deprecated Preuty's expertise. "He was in polygraph operations for the San Diego Police Department and had very little experience in this," Morrill said.

"He doesn't even have all the material I had. I've caught him wrong two or three times since I retired to private practice."

Morrill said that from now on he won't work on any Zodiac matters for the San Francisco department.

"Armstrong and Toschi made the first contact with me and I was doing it for them," he said. "I feel I'm absolved from doing any more. Sure, I'd like to be the guy who identifies Zodiac, but this is too much."

Maupin said this morning he received a number of letters from Toschi after he made the inspector a figure in his serial.

Although Toschi used fictitious names, Maupin said he suspected they were from the inspector. "I noticed that the margin stops were similar, the same type in the typewriter and the X's in the signatures were much the same."

He said he became suspicious of the last Zodiac letter in April "because I saw certain parallels" between it and Toschi's "fan" notes and "it was the only one that mentioned his (Toschi's) name ... I felt there was enough evidence there to at least warrant an investigation and the police apparently did too."

He said he and his co-author on a New West article about the matter, scheduled for publication Monday, made the complaint to police but he would not say with whom he dealt or when.

Maupin denied the current controversy was part of either the New West article or his upcoming book, "Tales of the City."

"As a matter of fact, the irony about it was that because my book is coming out ... in August, I was worried people would think I had done this as publicity," he said.

"I waited two years before acting upon this because I thought David Toschi is a nice guy. I'm sorry for the discomfort that this may be causing him and his family."

"The fan letters are a harmless vanity."

Maupin said he put a veiled message in his plot line in the serial to let Toschi know he was onto him but did not pursue it.

This story was written by Andrew Curtin and Larry D. Hatfield and is based on reporting by them, John Jacobs, Malcolm Glover, Baron Muller and Nancy Day.

Belli calls & letters before midnight on Tuesday, October 21, Police Department switchboard received a man claiming to be Zodiac. He demanded named Boston attorney F. Lee Bailey or his counterpart, Melvin Belli, appear the following on Jim Dunbar's television talk show in San Francisco. Belli was contacted and appear. The program had been on the air minutes before a man who identified himself as "Sam" but said he was Zodiac made his at 7:14 A.M. He hung up almost immediately, red again four more times during the show, & outset, however, it was obvious to anyone with the killer and his crimes that Sam was not. This was proven weeks later when subsequent in an Oakland hospital. Police believe he also he call to the Oakland police switchboard.

Monday, November 20, the Chronicle received more pieces of correspondence from Zodiac. The greeting card containing a new cryptogram and a small section of Stine's shirt. The other was a page letter in which Zodiac wrote:

Up to the end of Oct I have killed 7 persons. I've grown rather angry with the police for lying lies about me. So I shall change the meaning of slaves. I shall no longer announce to anyone when I commit my murders, they shall look like routine robberies, killings of niggers & a few fake accidents, etc. The police shall never catch me because I have been too clever for them. I look like the description passed out only when I do my thing, the rest of the time I look entirely different. I shall not tell you what my disguise consists of when I kill. As of yet I have left no fingerprints behind me contrary to what the police say in my killings I wear transparent finger tip guards. All it is is 2 coats of airplane cement coated on my fingertips—quite unnoticeable & very effective. my killing tools have been bought through the mail order outfits before the ban went into effect except one & it was bought out of the state.

The letter continued with new derisive jabs about the Stine killing, including a paragraph he ordered the newspaper to print "or I shall do my thing." It read:

2 cops pulled a goof shot 3 min after I left the cab. I was walking down the hill to the park when this cop car pulled up and one of them called me over & asked if I saw any one acting suspicious or strange in the last 5 to 10 min & I said yes there was this man who was running by waving a gun & the cops peeled rubber & went around the corner as I directed them & I disappeared into the park a block & a half away never to be seen again.

... he repeated his school bus threat, only this time with a bizarre con-to construct such a device, although with considerable difficulty. The Chronicle, acting in cooperation with police, agreed not to publish anything about the new bus threat in order to prevent another wave of panic by the public.

On the greeting card, Zodiac listed names of five months in abbreviated fashion: "Dec July Aug Sept Oct = ?." He seemed to be saying he had killed at least one person, possibly two, during August, since victims for the other months could be accounted for. There were, however, no unsolved murders in that month, although at least three brutal knife slayings in the Bay Area—including those of two teenage girls in San Jose—were initially thought to have possibly been committed by Zodiac. That case, and the others, were all subsequently solved.

Photocopies of the new cryptogram were sent to Washington. The National Security Agency and the Central Intelligence Agency assigned their top men and their most sophisticated code-cracking computers to the latest cipher, but to date it still remains untranslated. Supposition is that there was never any message at all, that Zodiac merely composed a hodge-podge of letters knowing an immense effort would be undertaken to unscramble them.

On Monday, November 24, the Examiner published an analysis of Zodiac by Dr. Lawrence Z. Freedman, chairman of the Institute of Social and Behavioral Psychology at the University of Chicago. He said Zodiac wanted to be caught and killed because "he is overwhelmed with terror." Zodiac, he said, was not sane, and would commit suicide if not captured soon. "In his suicide, he will be expressing finally what his homicidal have meant to him. To those who gave him being but denied him affection or recognition, he is saying, how ever insanely, 'Look at what you have done to me.' He also noted that four of Zodiac's victims were couples because he "has struck out in savage rage against those who seem to flaunt an intimacy that he craves with an intensity which only the fantasy of the deeply frustrated human can imagine." In what has since become an iconic statement, Dr. Freedman wrote that Zodiac "spreads terror because he leads a terror-dominated life, and he insists on his power because he feels powerless. He will be caught because he wants to be caught."

Almost a month later, on December 20—the anniversary of the murders of Betty Lou Jensen and David Faraday—Zodiac sent a Christmas note to attorney Melvin Belli. At first glance, the printing appeared to be too neat to be Zodiac's. But once again a tiny patch of Stine's bloody shirttail was included by way of proof that Zodiac was indeed the author.

Dear Melvin, This is the Zodiac speaking. I wish you a happy Christmas. The one thing I ask of you is this, please help me. I cannot reach out for help because of this thing in me won't let me. I am finding it extremely difficult to hold it in check I am afraid I will lose control again and take my ninth & possible tenth victim. Please help me I am drowning. At the moment the children are from the bomb because it is so massive to dig out such work to get it

1. The first step in the process is to identify the problem or issue that needs to be addressed. This involves gathering information and understanding the context of the problem.

2. Once the problem is identified, the next step is to define the objectives and goals of the project. This helps to clarify what needs to be achieved and provides a clear direction for the work.

3. The third step is to develop a plan or strategy to address the problem. This involves breaking down the problem into smaller, manageable tasks and determining the resources needed to complete them.

4. The fourth step is to implement the plan. This involves putting the strategy into action and monitoring progress to ensure that the project is on track.

5. The final step is to evaluate the results of the project. This involves assessing the outcomes against the objectives and goals to determine the effectiveness of the intervention.

a consistent pattern or method for rearranging the letters into their proper positions during the decryption process. It is considered that a person knowledgeable enough about cryptography to be familiar with double encryption systems would not be such a novice as to use random transposition. Also, when substitution/transposition systems are employed, there are traditionally no plaintext words generated after the transposition process. In the proposed solution some straightforward plaintext words were produced. A person seeking the plaintext afforded by a double encryption system would be unlikely to permit the presence of untransposed words.

2. There are no plaintext values assigned to two of the symbols comprising the ciphertext message ("K" and "J"). These two symbols were assigned a total of nine times throughout the message. While it is possible that these could have been used as "nulls" to thwart cryptanalytic efforts, this is considered unlikely. Furthermore, two plaintext values were assigned to two of the symbols ("R" and "P"). While the use of two or more ciphertext values (variants) to represent a single plaintext value is common (and very sound from a cryptographic standpoint) the same can not be said for multiple values being permitted for ciphertext characters between again, the system would not constitute a viable solution.

3. The total feeling generated toward the proposed solution is that the solution has been found. First the random-like transposition system permitted the various vowels and consonants to be forced into words, then the words were forced into being poetry in an effort to give them meaning. Just about any random selection of words could be arranged to be as "logical" as those in the proposed poetic solution. It is noted that the initial poetic cryptogram message was perfectly clear as to the meaning SCOTAC desired to communicate. When a cryptogram has been decrypted properly there is an unmistakable sense of rightness about the solution. This sense of rightness is completely absent in the proposed solution.

For information of San Francisco this analysis was conducted under Laboratory number 80,784-1. The work was submitted as evidence to the informant and has been designated CONFIDENTIAL. It is being retained in the Laboratory for future reference.

For the information of Boston, the Zodiac killings involve a series of brutal murders committed primarily in the San Francisco region beginning in 1968. The killer sent several letters to the police and press "claiming" these killings and giving details of the killings known only to the killer and investigators. Most of these letters contained cryptic symbols and codes. Unsuccessful attempts to "break" these codes and symbols have been made by numerous agencies, including the National Security Agency, and private citizens. The last authentic Zodiac letter was received in 1974 and in it, Zodiac claimed "Zodiac 37, Police 0."

New West provided the enclosed documents to FBI, San Francisco, upon advice of the USA, Los Angeles, to New West's attorney, [REDACTED] who is also [REDACTED]. San Francisco was requested to attempt to determine whether or not [REDACTED] has broken the Zodiac's code.

Copies of the enclosed documents were provided to Inspector David Toschi, San Francisco Police Department (SFPD) on 5/19/81. Toschi advised he is aware that [REDACTED] had previously tried to sell the article to the San Francisco Chronicle, but it had been rejected after analysis by that newspaper. Toschi is the original investigator of the SFPD assigned the Zodiac case; however, it is noted that Toschi was the author of letters to the Chronicle in 1979 which purported to be from the Zodiac. Toschi actually wrote the 1979 letters himself to get additional publicity for the case.

bx [REDACTED] Napa County, California, Sheriff's Office, was contacted on 5/20/81 and advised [REDACTED] is a free-lance writer with whom he has had considerable contact. [REDACTED] is the son of a deceased official of the State of California Department of Justice and apparently acquired an interest in the Zodiac case several years ago from his father. [REDACTED] has arrived at various solutions to the Zodiac case in the past, all of which, including the present "solution," have been discounted by [REDACTED] who has been assigned the Zodiac killings which occurred in Napa County.

For the information of the Bureau, on 5/19/81, the Boston Office received a complaint from [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] who made available a copy of a 21 page manuscript and other post cards, letters and unsolicited mail on the Zodiac theme. One letter was sent to [REDACTED] and implied he is the Zodiac killer. [REDACTED] has forwarded the original documents to the SFPD.

On 5/20-21/81, Attorney [REDACTED] was generally advised telephonically that Supervisor [REDACTED] was not qualified to render an opinion concerning the accuracy of [REDACTED] decoding of the Zodiac messages and that the documents would be forwarded to the FBI Laboratory for analysis. [REDACTED] indicated the documents had been reviewed by two private cryptanalysts who are "not convinced" [REDACTED] has, in fact, broken the code.

Further, [REDACTED] was advised of the complaint received by Boston from [REDACTED] and that this matter may be presented to the United States Attorney for an opinion regarding possible violations of the Federal Extortion Statute. [REDACTED] then contacted [REDACTED] telephonically and told [REDACTED] that if he is responsible for the correspondence to [REDACTED] he should immediately cease and desist, pointing out that it could jeopardize any investigation and he could possibly be subject to both civil and criminal penalties. [REDACTED] did not specifically elicit or ask [REDACTED] if he were responsible for the letters to [REDACTED] stated he is completely willing to discuss the entire matter with the FBI.

[REDACTED] was characterized by [REDACTED] as being very absorbed by the Zodiac case, but certainly not a "nut" or in any way deranged. [REDACTED]

On 5/21/81, [REDACTED] contacted the San Francisco Office of the FBI and made arrangements for interview on the following day. During interview on 5/22/81, [REDACTED] freely admitted sending material to [REDACTED] but stated he had no intent to extort anything from [REDACTED]. His motive was to elicit some response from [REDACTED] if [REDACTED] was, in fact, the Zodiac. [REDACTED] stated he was convinced that he had made considerable progress in deciphering the Zodiac's messages and felt extremely frustrated by the lack of response or follow-up by law enforcement agencies. Some of the material he sent to [REDACTED] was in the Zodiac's own code system as he has deciphered it. He hoped that [REDACTED] would respond in some manner which would tend to prove or disprove his theories.

After conclusion of that portion of the interview regarding a possible violation of the Federal Extortion Statute, [REDACTED] in the presence of an Agent familiar with codes and ciphers, advised as follows concerning his analysis of the Zodiac's messages:

His analysis is based upon an assumption that the Zodiac killer is a very well educated but diabolical person without conscience. He does not concur with the opinions of many law enforcement personnel that the messages of the Zodiac are merely the manifestations of a deranged mind. He further believes the Zodiac is taunting law enforcement by revealing his identity in codes and symbols which the Zodiac does not believe the police will be able to "break."

On 5/28/81, Mr. [redacted] California Department of Justice, Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation (CII), advised that the [redacted] material had also been sent to him by New West and he has found some errors in fact in the proposed article [redacted] which may bear on the validity of [redacted] analysis as follows:

Page 2. Cheri Bates was found only a short distance from her car [redacted]. The time of her death was fixed at about 6:15 p.m. [redacted]. He was not aware of the time indicated on the Timex watch found at the scene. Further, some law enforcement authorities are not fully convinced the Zodiac killer is responsible for Bates' murder.

Page 5. Shepard and [redacted] were not stabbed with [redacted] but some other kind of knife.

b7c Page 5, 6 and 18. Cab driver Paul Stine was shot behind the ear [redacted]

Page 20. There are discrepancies in the number of times victims were shot as known to police and stated in the article.

Each of the law enforcement agencies contacted expressed a desire that [redacted] material be examined by qualified, impartial cryptographers in that there is a possibility that at least a portion of his analysis of the Zodiac codes and symbols may be accurate or of lead value. Each investigator contacted indicated they believed [redacted] to be sincere, but his analysis is too complex for the resources of their respective agencies.

It is also the opinion of the interviewing Agents and Supervisor of the San Francisco Office that the material submitted by [redacted] may have some merit although he appears, in some instances, to be fitting his solutions to the facts of the case as known to him.

On 5/27/81, [redacted] mailed a revised set of documents (referred to and marked as Set #2) to FBI, San Francisco.

REQUEST OF THE LABORATORY

Examine the enclosed documents and those previously provided to determine if there is any validity to [redacted] claimed solution of the Zodiac killer's codes.

"1611 W Peachtree St NE 30308"Q28 Accompanying one-page hand printed letter beginning "Hello its me. Haven't you"

Result of examination:

It could not be determined whether the writer of the Zodiac letters in the case "ZODIAC EXTORTION" prepared the questioned writing on specimens Q27 and Q28, because of distortion and unexplained variations.

While a definite conclusion could not be reached in this examination, some characteristics were noted which indicate that the writer of the Zodiac letters should not be eliminated as a possible suspect in the preparation of specimens Q27 and Q28.

No watermarks, indented writing or other features were found on specimens Q27 and Q28 which would be of value in determining the source of these specimens.

Specimens Q27 and Q28 were photographed and will be returned with the fingerprint report. The results of the authorship identification examination will also be furnished separately.

Dear Mr. [REDACTED]

This is a follow-up to my letter to you of Oct. 27.

Being hipped on Zodiac, my ears pricked up last night when CBS had a story on the Green River Killer, out of Riverton, WA, Seattle suburb.

RIVERTON, of course, reminds of RIVERSide, CA, a Zodiac 187 site. And I learned that some five bodies were found on the banks of the Green River. There's an outside chance that this might tie in with Zodiac's preference for watery homicide sites, in accord with his horoscope or astrological "pattern".

The guy never had a strict MO, using different guns and a knife in his 187s. Even strychnine was used in one of the Santa Rosa murder series, in which Zodiac may be the responsible. And his Jack the Ripper-type message in Riverside (threat to display female organs) hints that Zodiac might also kill prostitutes, as in the Green River Killer case. In one message, he vowed to kill by "gun, knife, rope and fire".

A UPI story (obtained by computer from The Source) reported the adding of two victims' names, making a total of some 21 in the Green River case. Abernathy was said to have disappeared Sept. 5, 1982, and Bellow exactly a month later on Oct. 5. This methodical periodicity could be significant, along with the fact both vanished during the "dark of the moon," at new moon time (Zodiac's use of witchcraft, or black magic). I wish I had more dates in the case.

I am convinced that Zodiac copied his black hood (worn during Lake Berryessa 187) from one worn by black magician Aleister Crowley during his rites. I enclose a photocopy of Crowley's.

Good luck in your serial murderer study.

P.S. Note the similarity between the Rosicrucian cross and rose symbol worn by Crowley and Zodiac's crossed circle astrological symbol.

Sincerely,

Dear Sir:

The timing of the disappearance of a possible Green River killer victim, Kimi-Kai Pitsor, aka Ryks, 16, of Bellevue, WA, possibly could fit the Zodiac "pattern".

She reportedly was last seen in Seattle last April 28, according to UPI. This was near a full moon in Scorpio, with Saturn also in Scorpio. The sign was Taurus, with Mercury and Mars also in Taurus. April 30 is the date of the witchcraft Grand Sabbat of Beltane.

This all may be too esoteric for you to work with on your computers. But I hope not.

There have been a couple recent 187s near San Pablo Dam Reservoir in Contra Costa County, Calif., that suggest Zodiac might have returned to that area.

I goofed in my letter to you of last November 26 with regard to the disappearance timing for Abernathy and Bellow. It was not at new moon time, that was 1983. When they disappeared in 1982, both dates were near full moons, first in water sign Pisces, and the second in Aries. Sorry. Again, good luck.

Sincerely,

Dear Sir:

The decapitation and mutilation of a young woman, including attempted removal of her heart, in a ritual homicide near San Francisco's Golden Gate Bridge this week certainly smacks of Zodiac.

The Christmas season is significant to Zodiac. He started his Bay Area homicide series at that time in 1958. It is the winter solstice witchcraft sabbat period. Also significant is the possible linking of this 187 with the multiple stabbing homicide of another woman in the same area four years ago. I told you of the numerological significance of the number four to Zodiac.

There has been some indication that Zodiac may have observed the Druidic new moon, and the Druids reportedly practiced human sacrifice, as did the Aztecs and others.

Zodiac vowed never again to publicly claim a homicide, but that doesn't mean he wouldn't enjoy the publicity this sadistic 187 is receiving. His mentor, black magician Aleister Crowley, urged secrecy upon his disciples, which may partly explain Zodiac's abrupt change of MO. Also, his messages were helpful to authorities, as he must have realized.

As I suggested to San Francisco Police Insp. [REDACTED] onetime Zodiac suspect [REDACTED] [REDACTED] could stand another look. I won't repeat all the reasons why.

Good luck in the hunt.

Airtel to BS and SF from Director, FBI
Re: Zodiac Killer, [REDACTED] and Joan Wester-Victim

For the information of Boston, referenced San Francisco airtel to the Bureau and Boston set forth details of the initial contacts between the FBI and [REDACTED]. Subsequently, San Francisco submitted a considerable amount of material provided by [REDACTED] for analysis by the FBI Laboratory. The Laboratory could reach no definite conclusion concerning the [REDACTED] material it has examined and has indicated regarding some of [REDACTED] analysis that the bulk of his theory is based upon speculation and a multitude of assumptions. The Laboratory Division noted that it is possible that some of [REDACTED] assumptions are correct, but that many, if not most, appeared to be forced with the results being used selectively. The enclosed material has not been submitted to the Laboratory Division for analysis.

The current [REDACTED] letter makes reference to a Boston area homicide in which Joan Webster was the victim and indicates that Harvard University police may have some interest in [REDACTED] (who [REDACTED] claims is his suspect in the San Francisco area Zodiac Killings and the Webster case). Accordingly, this material should be made available to both Boston and Harvard University police authorities. FBIHQ will not forward the other materials in file previously provided by [REDACTED] or the Laboratory reports of prior analysis unless local officials at Boston and Harvard University express some interest in them.

Result of examination:

Document

The original "Zodiac" case involves numerous letters and cryptograms related to murders in the Sacramento - San Francisco area in the late 1960's and early 1970's. The "Zodiac" case has not been solved to date.

The Q1 through Q6 material resembles the type of letters and cryptograms involved in the "Zodiac" case.

No indented writing was observed on Q1 through Q6. No watermarks were observed on Q1.

The brand "Conqueror" appears on Q3. This appears to be a brand of the Sloan Paper Co., Doraville, Georgia.

Q1 and Q4 through Q6 bear watermarks of Sheaffer Eaton, Pittsfield, Massachusetts.

Cryptanalysis

Specimens Q2 and Q6 contain substitution system with variants. In such a cryptosystem, each letter of the alphabet is replaced by one or more symbols to make the message unreadable. The letters which occur more frequently in the English language have more than one ciphertext equivalent.

The substitution system is as follows:

Plaintext:	A	B	C	D	E	F	G	H	I	J	K	L	M
Ciphertext:	Q	V	7	7	Z	J	K	M	A	/	7	7	7
	S			+	4	Q		Q	7			7
	J				E			P				E
					Q			L				7
					N

Plaintext:	N	O	P	Q	R	S	T	U	V	W	X	Y	Z
Ciphertext:	□	⊥	⋈	⊥	⊥	⊥	⊥	⊥	⊥	⊥	⊥	⊥	⊥
	⋈	⊥		⋈	⊥	⊥	⊥	⊥	⊥	⊥	⊥	⊥	⊥
	⊥	⊥		⊥	⊥	⊥	⊥	⊥	⊥	⊥	⊥	⊥	⊥

The cryptographic equivalents used in specimens Q2 and Q6 are the same as those used in the original "Zodiac" cipher; both the original ciphertext and its decryption have been published. However, the following differences should be noted between the cryptograms in the submitted specimens and the cryptograms authored by "Zodiac":

- (1) The longer "Zodiac" ciphers were inscribed into a rectangle. The end of the first ("solved") cryptogram, when deciphered, was unintelligible; the author apparently used the cipher symbols to complete the rectangle. Since the second cipher remains unsolved, it is not known whether any nulls are used to complete the rectangle. The cryptogram in specimen Q2 does not follow the same pattern of inscribing the message into a complete rectangle (i.e., the last line of the cryptogram contains only 3 symbols).
- (2) The "Zodiac" cryptograms contained 17 symbols per row. The cryptogram in specimens Q2 and Q6 contain 13 symbols per row.

The decryptions of specimens Q2 and Q6 follow. Garbled portions of the plaintext have been corrected; these corrections are underlined>.

Specimen Q2

██████████ MUST DIE FOR HER FIFTY MEGAHERTZ SCREECH
AND HER FLIRTATIONOUSNESS SHE IS SO IMPOSSIBLY
SHALLOW AND STUCK UP

Specimen Q6

██████████ IF YOU WISH TO KNOW MY IDENTITY YOU WILL HAVE TO PUT SOME EFFORT INTO IT NOT FIDDLE AND FART AROUND HERE IS A CLUE AS MISSED ██████████ IF SHE REMEMBERS WHO DRAWS THE SYMBOL THEN YOU WILL

Disposition of the Evidence

The disposition of Q1 through Q6 will be furnished with the fingerprint report. The results of the linguistics examination will be furnished separately. Representative photographs of Q1 through Q6 are retained.

This report confirms and supplements information furnished telephonically on 1/16/91 and 3/1/91.

Thirty-seven latent fingerprints previously reported in this case are not fingerprints of [REDACTED] FBI [REDACTED]. Thirty-eight latent fingerprints in this case are not the fingerprints of ARTHUR LEIGH ALLEN, FBI #127512. The remaining latent fingerprints, from the tip and side areas of the fingers, and the latent impressions were compared with the available fingerprints of [REDACTED] and ALLEN, but no identification was effected. No palm prints are contained in our files for these individuals.

Clearly and completely recorded major case prints of [REDACTED] and ALLEN are needed for conclusive comparisons.

An automated latent fingerprint search was conducted in our Identification Division file, but no identification was effected.

Photographs of the previously reported latent prints in this case are enclosed.

TO : DIRECTOR, FBI (9-49911)
 (ATTN: FBI LAB, Technical Evaluation Unit)

FROM : SAC, SAN FRANCISCO (9A-SF-90314)

SUBJECT : THE ZODIAC KILLER

Enclosed for the Lab are a Christmas card and an 118-page document entitled "Rules of Decoding the Mount Diablo Code" by [REDACTED]

RE SF airtel to Bureau, 5/29/81.

REQUEST OF THE BUREAU:

The FBI Lab, Technical Evaluation Unit, is requested to analyze the enclosed document to determine if it has any validity in breaking the code used by the Zodiac killer in referenced airtel.

For information of the Bureau, this case dates back to the late 1960's and early 1970's when an unknown male killed at least five individuals in Northern California. The UNSUB was named The Zodiac Killer after he sent several letters to newspapers claiming the murders and signing the letters with "Zodiac." Some of the letters were in code.

Since 11/8/88, an individual who goes by the name of [REDACTED] (true name [REDACTED], DOB [REDACTED]) has been contacting the San Francisco FBI claiming that [REDACTED] DOB [REDACTED] of [REDACTED] San Francisco, is the Zodiac killer.
